Notes From Mrs. Amend:

Students and chaperones who have signed a commitment for the CA Trip must follow the instructions below to sign up online with WorldStrides. Students cannot be assigned to rooms until they register online.

Please help your student order or put together (from a thrift shop) his or her costume for the Madrigal part of our December 9th concert.

—Freshmen and sophomores dress as servants. Girls wear a floor-length skirt, white long-sleeve shirt, and a vest. Boys wear knickers (pants rolled up to the knee, long white socks up to the knee, black dress shoes, a white shirt, and a vest. White mop caps for girls or dark mop caps for boys are allowed.

—Juniors and seniors dress as the lords and ladies of the court. Ask your student to consult his or her choir co-president for specific examples.

All-State singers must reimburse the Choir Boosters for the cost of their music, which they will own and use through All-State in January. The students will receive their music and a practice cd early next week. Singers are required to memorize the assigned pieces and prove memorization before a judge on Wednesday, January 10th, 2018 in order to participate in All-State Choir Thursday-Saturday, January 11-13, 2018. All-State singers will be organizing extra rehearsals to aid in preparing music, but it's each individual's responsibility to be prepared for the memory check.
